

Furry Buddies In Home Service, LLC
PO Box 52
Flourtown, PA 19031
215-836-2738

Thank you for your interest in working with Furry Buddies in Home Service. The ideal person will possess qualities that include: caring for pets as if they were their own, being dependable, responsible and have dependable transportation. The person hired can look forward to a long term career with increased responsibilities as their territory and clientele increase.

Furry Buddies has been in business for over a decade and has an excellent reputation. There are 20 persons currently associated with Furry Buddies which, at times, stretches our pet care responsibilities to the limit. It is for this reason that this opportunity exists.

While the intrinsic rewards of this position are high, there are some parts of the business that need addressing. There are some unconventional hours and must be flexible as many of our clients call us at the last minute. There are usually weekend and holiday hours.

Salary is determined by the number of visits you make during any given day. Each visit is approximately one half hour and compensation is paid on a percentage basis.

I look forward to receiving your application so we can discuss this position further.

Sincerely,

CaroleAnne Hensley
